Your experience is what's important here. As well as every second.

Porsche Leipzig. The home of the Panamera and Macan, where sports car dreams are created on a daily basis and brought to life on the FIA-certified Porsche on-road circuit. The diamond-shaped Customer Centre invites visitors to embark on a voyage of discovery of the Porsche brand. And even aurochs and wild horses are at home in Leipzig: in the pastures of our dedicated off-road track – safely separated from exciting off-road challenges.

In short, it's far more than your usual production facility, but rather a real Porsche experience. Whether during a factory tour, a visit to the historic vehicle exhibition or an exclusive dinner in the restaurant.

An experience that you can further enhance with our driving events: as a co-pilot alongside a racing professional or as a pilot at the wheel of a Porsche. On or off-road.

You decide what your personal Porsche experience should involve. This brochure summarises the various options. But one thing is guaranteed with each of our packages: more thrills per second.

Embark on a tour and accompany us behind the scenes of our production process. Or take a seat for your personal Porsche experience. Either at a stylishly set table with Porsche Leipzig Gourmet. Or in a sports car as part of our Co-Pilot package, alongside a racing professional – of course. In our Pilot and Discover packages, your seat is directly behind the wheel. On-road, off-road or maybe both? You decide.

Tour

A Porsche is being created. And you are there. Up close, behind the scenes. Discover how Fascination Porsche begins – even before the car exists. Because in the assembly hall, everything that belongs together is fitted together. Screw by screw, detail by detail.

Our tours always provide fascinating insights into various areas of Porsche Leipzig. Curious? Then simply embark upon your first tour right away with a visit to our factory. And discover why we celebrate marriages every day.

Some of the best moments happen backstage.

Fascination Porsche begins before your very eyes. During our tour, you will witness how a Panamera or Macan are created thanks to the highly sophisticated interaction between man and machine.

Witness the bodyshell and cockpit assembled to form the control centre for the driver. And see how the roof lining and windows are installed.

The journey continues for you and the new Porsche. Station by station, you will learn many interesting details about the creation of a dream car. And you will be on the spot as the crucial moment in the life of a Porsche approaches: the marriage. You will see for yourself how the drivetrain and chassis are united with the body. A real experience for you. And a milestone for every Porsche. Once the wheels have been mounted, only the crowning finale remains: the test drive. Because every single vehicle produced in Leipzig is put through its paces prior to delivery. On the dedicated Porsche Circuit, of course.

Co-Pilot

Racing line, g-force, pushing the limits – these are all terms with which we're familiar from the world of motorsport. Our Porsche Leipzig Co-Pilot packages give you the chance to discover what they really mean, first hand and in a vehicle of your choice. This package includes a passenger ride in a sports car with an experienced racing instructor at the wheel.

A few words of advice: buckle up and hold tight.

From the passenger seat, you will experience spectacular laps alongside a racing professional. In the legendary 911, for example. Or in a thoroughbred race car: the 911 GT3 Cup.

On our FIA-certified Porsche on-road circuit, featuring sequences inspired by a number of famous corners from race tracks around the world.

Naturally, you can also put Porsche performance to the test on the circuit in a Cayenne or Panamera.

With all Co-Pilot packages, we take you behind the scenes of our production process. Another person may accompany you on the factory tour free of charge.

Pilot

Take to the starting line in a Porsche of your choice: the legendary 911, for example, or the 718 Boxster – the sports car among roadsters. On-road on our FIA-certified Porsche Circuit or on our off-road track in a Cayenne.

For fuel consumption and CO₂ emissions, please refer to page 50.

Take a glimpse behind the scenes – then take to the wheel.

With our Porsche Leipzig Pilot packages, you take to the starting line yourself. On our FIA-certified Porsche on-road circuit with copies of sections from famous circuits, including the Bus Stop, Parabolica and Mobil 1 S. In addition to the guided drive, you can also practise your braking manoeuvres.

Alternatively, you can put a Cayenne through its paces on our dedicated off-road track. It features different modules, plenty of water, mud and sludge to negotiate, as well as a large number of obstacles that, admittedly, we have deliberately put in your way.

You will also have the opportunity to learn about the production process. During a factory tour, you can witness how driving pleasure is created. Another person may accompany you on these packages free of charge.

Cup Experience. Your qualifying round for motorsport.

A very special kind of event: the Cup Experience, where you can enjoy racing at its very best. Whether in a 911 GT3 Cup, which is used in the international Porsche One-Make-Series, or Cayman GT4 Clubsport, which offers an ideal introduction to the fascinating world of motorsport. The choice is yours. Both models are built for performing at the limit. And to be driven by you. Take to the starting line with a clear objective: the racing line. Five emotionally charged hours await at Porsche Leipzig – on the FIA-certified Porsche on-road circuit.

Firstly, you'll receive a driver briefing in the road-approved version of the car – a 911 GT3 or Cayman S. During the first few laps out on the track, the instructor will teach you all the basics you'll need before switching over to the thoroughbred race car. Then you'll take to a 911 GT3 Cup or Cayman GT4 Clubsport. Four unforgettable 15-minute stints, supported by your personal instructor – always at your side and connected via intercom. At the end of every stint, your driving will be evaluated using data and video analysis.

And because every racing driver also needs a pit stop, we invite you to a four-course meal in our restaurant.

Participants must hold a full driving licence and have previously attended several driver training courses at the Porsche Track Experience (training level: Performance) or similar types of training course.

Our driving facilities

Porsche Leipzig stands for driving pleasure: on and off-road. On tarmac and on gravel. The Porsche Circuit is based on sections from famous international circuits and replicates professional motorsport conditions. The off-road track includes a host of challenging modules that are waiting to be mastered in a Porsche Cayenne.

It's time to familiarise yourself with our driving facilities.

For fuel consumption and CO₂ emissions, please refer to page 50.

Porsche Circuit

Accelerating, braking, maintaining the racing line. The feeling is indescribable. In every hundredth of a second. On our on-road circuit modelled on famous sections from circuits around the world. Its dynamic circuit includes additional attractions, such as a flutable skid pad. Part of the track is also used for the final test drive of every vehicle produced at the site.

You can navigate different sections, depending on the package and circuit availability. On non-production days, the entire circuit is available for driving events.

1 Sunset Bend
Sebring/USA
Description: right-hand bend
Length: 276.52m
Radii: 59m, 137m
Instructor's tip: 3rd gear. The aim is to make a perfect approach, only slightly touch the curbs and drive through the bend with a constant steering angle and gradual acceleration.

2 Loews
Monte Carlo/Monaco
Description: right-hand hairpin with a slight incline (U-turn)
Length: 72.50m
Radius: 21m
Instructor's tip: 2nd gear. Brake hard, avoid too much speed when entering the bend and steer in very late. Open the steering early and keep the momentum going into the following straight section.

3 Victoria Turn
Rio de Janeiro/Brazil
Description: left-hand bend with a barely perceptible incline (U-turn)
Length: 124.08m
Radius: 29m
Instructor's tip: 2nd gear. Watch out for the late entry point. While braking slightly, drive the vehicle through the dip towards the crest. After the rise, accelerate consistently and use the curbs.

4 Mobil 1 S
Nürburgring/Germany
Length: 129.44m
Radii: 86m, 69m
Instructor's tip: 2nd or 3rd gear – depending on the model. On the approach, follow the slight bend. Steer in early. Pull on the brake slightly at the first crest. Use the apex, avoid rolling and keep the vehicle on course. Take care in the rain: it can be slippery when exiting the bend.

5 Curve di Lesmo
Monza/Italy
Description: right-hand bend (oval)
Length: 509.96m
Radii: 110m, 118m
Instructor's tip: 3rd gear. Different lines can be chosen when entering the bend, depending on the model. Focus on the crest early. Follow the different radii of the bends by varying your pressure on the accelerator.

6 Bus Stop
Spa-Francorchamps/Belgium
Length: 52.33m
Radius: 19m
Instructor's tip: 2nd gear. The principle of braking into the bend and accelerating out applies here. Connect entry and exit with a specific steering angle, while using the apex. Avoid understeering and accelerate rather late.

7 Suntory Corner
Shizuoka/Japan
Length: 177.19m
Radii: 38m, 66m, 189m
Instructor's tip: 2nd gear. Brake hard as you approach the tight left-hand bend. Careful with the throttle. After the left-hand bend go right over to the centre of the road for optimum acceleration through the right-hand bend.

8 Corkscrew
Laguna Seca/USA
Description: right-left-right combination
Length: 252m
Radii: 20m, 25m
Instructor's tip: 2nd gear. When entering the bend, look up. Brake just before the top and drive the vehicle precisely over and through the tight left-hand bend. When exiting the right-hand bend, accelerate cautiously to keep the vehicle stable.

9 Parabolica
Monza/Italy
Description: right-hand bend
Length: 219.91m
Radius: 70m
Instructor's tip: 3rd gear. Watch out for the late entry point and crest. Look far into the bend, aim at the crest and steer the car with the accelerator pedal.

10 Suzuka S
Suzuka/Japan
Description: left-right combination
Length: 215.84m
Radii: 73m, 169m
Instructor's tip: 3rd gear. Watch out for rear-end balance, as steering into the bend and braking overlap. Once you have entered the bend apply the throttle again early. Incorporate the apexes in the line. Steer calmly and deliberately. Avoid rolling and oversteering.

11 Karussell
Nürburgring/Germany
Description: steep banked turn (180°)
Length: 158m
Radius: 34m
Instructor's tip: 2nd gear. On driving into the slope, watch out for the exact entry point and drive through the bend with constant speed. Don't accelerate too hard when leaving the bend and avoid oversteering.

A Dynamic stretch
Purpose: built to simulate extreme situations with real speeds. So that the driver can cautiously approach their own limits, and the limits of physics, in safe surroundings. Perhaps in a slalom, or braking and avoidance exercises. The aim is to master these extreme driving limits.

B Skid pad
Purpose: used as a training area for coping with unstable driving conditions. The skip pad can be flooded for that purpose. From 'slightly wet' to 'monsoon-type rain'. Best conditions for practising drift and experiencing oversteering and understeering.

Off-road Track

Featuring 15 spectacular off-road modules, the track starts off with a 100m water crossing. Other challenges include a steep ascent section, where the gradient is 80%, and a 35° slanted traversing course. Along the way, you'll learn how to control the irrepressible power of the Cayenne with skill, sensitivity and precision – whether in water, on gravel or in mud.

1 Gravel track

Slush or mud: the loose track ballast simulates both at the same time. Getting stuck? Can happen. If you don't drive steadily.

Instructor's tip: keep your speed constant. Off-road mode provides additional traction.

2 Sand track

Into the desert. At least for a short time. The challenge: half a metre of deep sand to get through. Getting stuck? Almost impossible thanks to Porsche Traction Management (PTM).

Instructor's tip: keep an even speed. Only controlled acceleration.

15 Water crossing

Keep the windows and doors closed. Because you are about to drive through a water ford that's up to 50cm deep and 100m long. The special construction of the Cayenne body will ensure that nobody gets wet.

Instructor's tip: drive at walking speed.

14 Corduroy road

We put obstacles in the way. More accurately: wooden logs that have to be crossed. Terrain rarely gets rougher than this. The automatic braking differential (ABD) helps smooth out any unevenness.

Instructor's tip: drive very carefully and slowly.

13 Muddy track

Firm ground? Afraid not. Staying on track? Almost impossible. A real challenge in deep mud.

Instructor's tip: drive smoothly and stay in the ruts. Avoid excessive steering. The rear differential lock provides the right amount of traction.

12 Hilly section

Constantly up and down – only the enjoyment remains consistent. In between: a tank bridge to overcome.

Instructor's tip: drive quickly, except for the tank bridge. Porsche Traction Management (PTM) helps on the way up the hills, Porsche Hill Control (PHC) on the way down.

11 Field track

Face your fears. Through swampy terrain. Through bends, mud and sludge. In deep ruts.

Instructor's tip: fast on the straight sections, moderate in the bends.

3 Log course simulation

The destination: in sight. The route: anything but easy. Through various concrete cylinders that will make the course difficult to complete.

Instructor's tip: calm, careful driving.

4 Steep ascent

How do you get over an 80% incline? With 100% nerve. An extreme challenge for the driver. And the passenger. How do you pass the nerve test? With electronic all-wheel drive.

Instructor's tip: on the way up, drive at a constant speed and very carefully. On the way down with the help of Porsche Hill Control (PHC).

5 Twisting

Up into the air. Stone humps staggered to the left and right cause the vehicle to pitch. Diagonally opposite wheels are then up in the air and are braked by the automatic braking differential (ABD).

Instructor's tip: drive cautiously in slow motion.

6 Rocky climb

The only way up? The steps. The way down: also the steps. Wheels lose contact with the ground? No problem, Porsche Hill Control (PHC) evens out the ride.

Instructor's tip: drive at walking pace with constant engine speed.

7 Woodland section

This trip into the forest is not a walk in the park. There are various stone humps, a ditch crossing and a banked slope, with a 30% gradient and a 25° incline crossing the path.

Instructor's tip: set the air suspension to special terrain. Drive the vehicle slowly while anticipating what is ahead.

8 Slanting section

Now it gets really steep. Maximum concentration and some nerve are needed here. Because the vehicle leans extremely to the side. By 25° on the straight section and up to 35° in the bends. Passengers: hold tight.

Instructor's tip: drive slowly and keep control. Avoid excessive steering.

9 Ramp crossing

A steady hand is required. Because it's tight. The road: narrow. The ground: slippery. Above all, precision is needed.

Instructor's tip: set the air suspension to special terrain to avoid any grounding. Porsche Traction Management (PTM) helps with this.

10 Bunker crossings

Hold on tight. It's a rough ride over the old bunkers in the track. The drive: up and down. Vision: restricted.

Instructor's tip: drive the vehicle with moderate speed. Porsche Hill Control (PHC) will help going downhill.

Your destination is set. Let us show you the way.
